Re: Freedom of Information Act Request FOIA EPA-R8-2013-008339

Dear Ms. Knaus:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act request of July 18, 2013, regarding all correspondence, including emails, since February 1, 2009 between the Environmental Protection Agency and Google, Inc. related to the release of refrigerant at Google's data center in Thornton, Colorado.

Included in this transmittal is a copy of the records which are responsive to your request. I work in the EPA's civil enforcement office and my research is limited to civil matters only. The cost of providing this information is $20.50. An invoice covering the charges for processing your request is included in the EPA FOIA response submitted to holley.knaus@seiu.org.

Under the FOIA, you have the right to appeal this determination to the National Freedom of Information Office, U.S. EPA, FOIA and Privacy Branch, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. (2822T), Washington, DC 20460 (U.S. Postal Service Only), E-mail: FOIA\_HQ@epa.gov. Only items mailed through the United States Postal Service may be delivered to 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW. If you are submitting your appeal via hand delivery, courier service or overnight delivery, you must address your correspondence to 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room 6416J, Washington, DC 20004. Your appeal must be made in writing, and it must be submitted no later than 30 calendar days from the date of this letter. The Agency will not consider appeals received after the 30 calendar day limit. The appeal letter should include the FOI number listed above. For quickest possible handling, the appeal letter and its envelope should be marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at 303-312-6210.

Sincerely,
